

Another day, another meeting: community empowerment and vibrancy in Orkney

Liz Dinnie & Carlos Galan-Diaz

The James
Hutton
Institute

Rural community empowerment and vibrancy

The James
Hutton
Institute

Community Empowerment and Renewal Bill

Have your say

The Scottish Government wants Scotland to be successful. It wants businesses to be able to grow and for everyone to be able to do well.

To do this, the Government wants local communities to get the chance to do more for themselves. It wants people to take part and help decide what happens where they live.

This paper tells you about some of the Scottish Government's ideas. It wants to know what you think too.

Easy-read summary

National Outcome
We have strong, resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others

The James
Hutton
Institute

OrkCEmP

Reducing energy, growing green

Findings

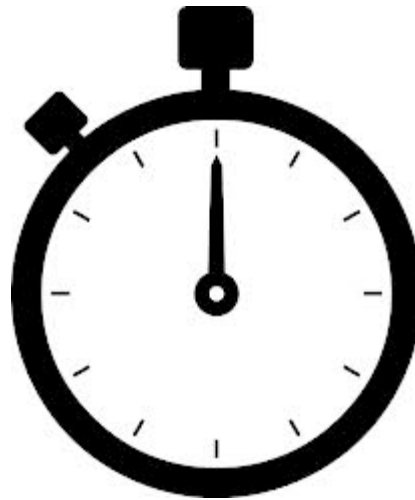

- Community engagement happens over the life course

Findings

- Community engagement takes time and personal resources

Findings

- History and sense of sharing something in common

Conclusions

- Contested communities?

